FIFTH DAY
(Thursday, January 20, 1983)

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Blake, Brooks, Brown, Caperton, Doggett, Edwards, Farabee, Glasgow, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Jones, Kothmann, Leedom, Lyon, Mauzy, McFarland, Montford, Parker, Parmer, Santiesteban, Sarpalius, Sharp, Sims, Traeger, Truan, Uribe, Vale, Washington, Whitmire, Williams.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend Roland Timberlake, St. Luke's on the Lake, Austin, offered the invocation as follows:

O Lord our Supreme Governor, the fountain of all wisdom, whose glory is in all the world; whose will is good and whose law is truth: we commend this grand State of Texas to Thy merciful care, that, being guided by Thy divine providence, we may dwell secure in Thy peace.

Grant to our Governor, Mark, our Speaker, Gib, Representatives and most especially to our Lieutenant Governor, Bill, and all the Senators assembled in this chamber, the wisdom and the strength to discern and follow Thy will and enact laws which shall please Thee and not necessarily other men.

Fill each of them with the love of truth, and empower them to resist temptation, avoid evil, and keep them ever mindful of their calling to serve this people in Thy holy fear.

When citizens come with their special requests, remove their blindness, give them the greater vision, let their sight be to the next horizon, that when all is done,
